

The Rotherfield Players Newsletter November 2017

Cinderella Tickets for this classic pantomime are on sale now in The Courtyard, the Village Stores and from www.rotherfieldplayers.co.uk. Make sure you get them soon as they are proving very popular.

I'm told that rehearsals are going very well under the direction of Derek Holland, with choreography by Carol Swift and Anna Thompson is in charge of music. There is some fabulous dancing and singing, and I hear that the costumes are spectacular (thank-you Helen Gallifant and team). Producer Jess Hardy is keeping everyone on their toes.

Our last show in October, The Rotherfield Fringe, was so well received by our audiences that they hope we will do some more productions like that. Thanks Jo Evans for devising and directing such a fun show.
